

Team SAKSHAM brings to you the unique opportunity of empowering & transforming lives of several economically backward women of Palghar district, Mumbai.

WHO: PTVA's Institute of Management in association with Learning Space Foundation and Aamhi Udayogini launches project SAKSHAM.

WHY: Palghar, a beautiful district on the outskirts of Mumbai is home to several tribes. These tribes face dire poverty. The tribal women are determined to transform their lives & achieve economic independence. This is our small attempt to help them with the same.

HOW: We train the women & provide sewing machines & raw materials leading to the production of handcrafted cloth bags.

How can you help: You can contribute as much as you can from Rs. 50, and multiples thereon ;

via Google Pay: 9594452204

PhonePe: 9594452204@ybl

Cash & Cheque in the name of: Learning Space Foundation

80(G) certificates will be issued to donors requesting the same